

FRIEND FOR LIFE (Bryan Bowers)

[Verse]

Bb Eb
When your Mom and Dad cross your mind,
Bb Eb
Thinking back to the ties that bind.
Eb Ab
Won't fill your heart like singing some old song,
Eb Bb Eb
They used to sing back when you were young.

[Chorus]

Eb Ab
When you learn a song, you've got a friend for life,
Bb Ab Bb Eb
That you can call on in the still of the night.
Ab
When you're down and out, on a two-lane road,
Eb Bb Gm
Your friend the song will be there to ease your load,
Ab Eb Bb Eb
Will be there to ease your load.

[Verse]

Bb Eb
When time hangs heavy on your hands,
Bb Eb
That novel that you burn your eyes out on,
Eb Ab
Won't fill your heart like learning some old song,
Eb Bb Eb
That will be there to help you later on.

[Chorus]

Eb Ab
When you learn a song, you've got a friend for life,
Bb Ab Bb Eb
That you can call on in the still of the night.
Ab
When you're down and out, on a two-lane road,
Eb Bb Gm
Your friend the song will be there to ease your load,
Ab Eb Bb Eb
Will be there to ease your load.

[Verse]

Bb Eb
When the night is young but you're feeling old,
Bb Eb
TV's empty hours won't fill your soul,
Eb Ab
Like singing some old song that was your friend,
Eb Bb Eb
When you were young, and you are young again.

[Chorus]

Eb Ab
When you learn a song, you've got a friend for life,
Bb Ab Bb Eb
That you can call on in the still of the night.
Ab
When you're down and out, on a two-lane road,
Eb Bb Gm
Your friend the song will be there to ease your load,
Ab Eb Bb Eb
Will be there to ease your load.
