

Hello In There chords by John Prine

[Intro]   G Am   D      G Am   D      Bm   C      G   D  	[Chorus] F G  Ya know that old trees just  grow stronger,  F G  And old rivers grow wilder every  day.  Bm C  Old people just grow  lonesome  G D G  Waiting for someone to say  Hello in there, hello.	G Am D  Someday I'll go and call up  Rudy,  G Am D  We worked together at the  factory.  Bm C  What could I say if asks  What's new?  G D  Nothing what's with you?  G Nothing much to do.
[Verse 1] G Am D  We had an apartment in the  city,  G Am D  Me and Loretta liked living  there.  Bm C  Well it's been years since the  kids had grown,  G D  A life of their own left us alone.	[Instrumental]   G Am   D      G Am   D      Bm   C      G   D  	[Chorus] F G  Ya know that old trees just  grow stronger,  F G  And old rivers grow wilder every  day.  Bm C  Old people just grow  lonesome  G D G  Waiting for someone to say  Hello in there, hello.
G Am D  John and Linda live in Omaha,  G Am D  And Joe is somewhere on the  road.  Bm C  We lost Davy in the Korean  war,  G D  And I still don't know what for  don't matter anymore.	[Verse 2] G Am D  Me and Loretta we don't talk  much more,  G Am  D  She sits and stares through  the back door screen.  Bm C  And all the news just repeats  itself  G D  Like some forgotten dream that  we've both seen.	[Instrumental]   G Am   D      G Am   D      Bm   C      G   D
		[Verse 3] G Am D  So if you're walking down the  street sometime  G Am D  And spot some hollow ancient  eyes,  Bm C  Please don't just pass them by

		and stare G D G As if you didn't care, say Hello in there, hello
