Am F C
He could see the storm clouds rollin' across the hill
Em F
He barely beat the rain in from the field
C F
And between the back door slamming she heard him say

Damn this rain, and damn this wasted day.
C F
But she'd been waiting for this day for oh so long

She was standing in the kitchen with nothing but her apron on

And in disbelief he stood and he stared a while

And when their eyes met, they both began to smile

Somewhere other than the night she needs to hear
I love you

Somewhere other than the night she needs to know you care

Somewhere other than the night

Verse 2

They spent the day wrapped up in a blanket on the front porch swing
