

The DRUNKEN Scotsman

[Verse]

G C D G
Well Scotsman clad in kilt left the bar one evening
fair
G C G D
One could tell by how he walked, that he'd drunk
more than his share.
C G C D
He stumbled on until he could no longer keep his feet,
G C D G
Then he staggered off into the grass to sleep
beside the street.

[Chorus]

C G D
Ring ding diddle iddle I dee oh, ring di diddle I
Oh
G C D G
He staggered off into the grass to sleep beside the street.

[Verse]

G C D G
Later on two young and lovely girls just happened
by,
G C G D
One says to the other with a twinkle in her eye.
C G C D
See yon sleeping Scotsman, so strong and
handsome built,
G C D G
I wonder if it's true what they don't wear beneath
the kilt.

[Chorus]

C G D
Ring ding diddle iddle I dee oh, ring di diddle I
Oh
G C D G
I wonder if it's true what they don't wear beneath
the kilt.

[Verse]

G C D G
They crept up to that sleeping Scotsman quiet as could be,
G C G D
Lifted up his kilt above the waist so they could see.
C G C D
And there behold for them to view beneath his Scottish skirt,
G C D G
Was nothing more than God had graced him with
upon his birth.

[Chorus]

C G D
Ring ding diddle iddle I dee oh, ring di diddle I
Oh
G C D G
Was nothing more than God had graced him with
upon his birth.

[Verse]

G C D G
They marveled for a moment then one said we'd best be gone,
G C G D
Let's leave a present for our friend before we move along.
C G C D
As a gift they left a blue silk ribbon, tied into a bow,
G C D G
Around the bonnie star of the Scots kilt lifting show.

[Chorus]

C G D
Ring ding diddle iddle I dee oh, ring di diddle I
Oh
G C D G
Around the bonnie star of the Scots kilt lifting show.

[Verse]

 G C D G
The Scotsman woke to nature's call and stumbled towards a tree,
G C G D
Behind a bush he lifts his kilt and gawks at what he sees.
C G C D
Then in a startled voice he says to what's before his eyes,
 G C D G
My friend I dunno where you've been but I see you've won first prize.

[Chorus]

C G D
Ring ding diddle iddle I dee oh, ring di diddle I Oh
 G C D G
My friend I dunno where you've been but I see you've won first prize.
