On a hill far away stood an old rugged cross,

The emblem of suffering and shame.

And I love that old rugged cross where the dearest
and best,

For the world of lost sinners was slain

[Verse 2]

G

To that old rugged cross I will ever be true,

Its shame and reproach gladly bear;

Then he'll call me some day to my home far away,

D

Where his glory forever I'll share.

[Chorus]

So I'll cherish the old rugged cross,

C

Till my trophies at last I lay down;

I will cling to the old rugged cross, and Exchange it some day for a crown.
